MR. & MISS APRATIM 2026

RULES & REGULATIONS

Event Dates: 18–19 November 2026

All participants are required to follow the rules and regulations mentioned below to ensure a fair, disciplined, and successful event.

1. GENERAL RULES

1. All participants must report to the venue at the time specified by the organising committee.
2. Participants must attend all four rounds of the competition.
3. Punctuality, discipline, and professional behaviour are mandatory throughout the event.
4. Participants must follow the instructions given by the organising committee, judges, and backstage team.
5. Misbehaviour, indiscipline, or disrespect towards judges, organisers, or fellow participants will not be tolerated.
6. Participants must maintain a healthy competitive spirit and respect one another.

2. ROUND-WISE RULES

ROUND 1: INTRODUCTION

1. Each participant must introduce themselves confidently before the audience and judges.
2. The introduction should include their name, branch, interests, personality, and other relevant details.

3. Participants are encouraged to be creative, original, and expressive.

4. The introduction must be completed within the time limit specified by the organising committee.

5. Reading directly from a mobile phone or written script is discouraged.

ROUND 2: TALENT ROUND

1. Participants must showcase a talent of their choice.

2. The performance must be appropriate for a college-level event.

3. Participants must arrange their own props, costumes, instruments, or other materials required for the performance.

4. Any background music or special technical requirements must be submitted to the organising committee in advance.

5. The performance must remain within the time limit specified by the organisers.

6. Performances involving fire, dangerous objects, or other unsafe elements are strictly prohibited.

7. Plagiarism or misrepresentation of another person’s performance may result in penalties.

ROUND 3: RAMP WALK

1. Participants must follow the sequence and instructions provided by the organising committee.

2. Outfits must be appropriate for the event and suitable for a college-level fashion competition.

3. Participants must arrange their own outfits, footwear, and accessories unless otherwise communicated.

4. Confidence, posture, expressions, stage presence, and overall presentation will be evaluated.

5. Participants must not interfere with another contestant’s walk or performance.

6. Any props or special requirements must be approved by the organising committee beforehand.

ROUND 4: QUESTION & ANSWER

1. Participants must answer the questions asked by the judges confidently and respectfully.
2. Answers should be clear, relevant, and well-articulated.
3. Participants will be evaluated on their confidence, presence of mind, communication skills, originality, and clarity of thought.
4. Participants must respect the judges and avoid inappropriate or offensive responses.
5. The judges' decision regarding the evaluation will be final.

3. JUDGING CRITERIA

Participants will be judged on the following aspects:

* Introduction: Confidence, originality, communication, and personality.
* Talent Round: Skill, creativity, presentation, and audience engagement.
* Ramp Walk: Posture, confidence, expressions, styling, and stage presence.
* Question & Answer: Intelligence, presence of mind, clarity, confidence, and communication skills.

4. ATTENDANCE AND PUNCTUALITY

1. Attendance at all scheduled rounds and rehearsals is mandatory.
2. Late arrival or absence without prior approval may lead to penalties or disqualification.
3. Participants must inform the organising committee in advance if they are unable to attend a rehearsal.
4. No participant may leave the venue during the event without informing the organisers.

5. DISCIPLINE AND DISQUALIFICATION

A participant may be disqualified for:

* Repeated indiscipline or failure to follow instructions.
* Deliberately disrupting the event.
* Attempting to influence judges unfairly.
* Using offensive language or engaging in harassment or misconduct.
* Failing to appear for a scheduled round without prior approval.

6. FINAL DECISION

1. The judges' decision regarding scores, rankings, and winners will be final.
2. The organising committee reserves the right to make necessary changes to the schedule or event format.
3. All participants are expected to cooperate with the organising committee throughout the event.

Remember: Confidence, creativity, individuality, and sportsmanship are the keys to making your mark on the stage.

Best wishes to all participants!